Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 25, 2026

Introduction

Firstly in prophecy, and later in truth, the Light of the World is shining, driving away the former darkness. This light is, of course, Jesus Christ.

First Reading: Isaiah 9:1b-4

On the people who dwelt in a land of deep darkness light has shone; the Lord has multiplied the nation and increased its joy.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17

Paul's exhortation to the church in Corinth is, as usual, practical, addressing the divisions that have arisen in the community; as the church is the Body of Christ, it cannot be divided.

Gospel: Matthew 4:12-23

With the arrest of John the Baptist, Jesus moves fully into his ministry and immediately calls his first two disciples; in doing so, he is building his team and laying the foundations of the Church.

Fr. Cosmas Reflection

Come Follow Me

Jesus' first message in today's Gospel is simple and demanding: "Repent, for the Kingdom of heaven is at hand." Repentance is often misunderstood as mere sorrow for sin, but it is more than that. To repent means to change direction, to turn away from whatever keeps us in darkness and to orient our lives toward God. The Kingdom of heaven is not just a future reward; it is God's active presence among us now. To repent, then, is to open our lives to that presence.

Immediately after proclaiming the Kingdom, Jesus calls disciples. He meets ordinary men in the middle of their daily work—fishermen casting their nets. He does not begin with long explanations or conditions. He simply says, "Come after me." The response is striking in its simplicity and courage: they leave their nets and follow Him. Those nets represent security, routine, identity, and control. Following Jesus always involves leaving something behind—not necessarily our jobs or families, but our false securities, our selfishness, our fear of change.

This Gospel reminds us that Christianity is not first a set of rules or ideas; it is a relationship and a journey. To be Christian is to follow Christ, to allow Him to reshape our priorities and give our lives a new purpose. Jesus promises to make His disciples "fishers of men." He transforms ordinary lives into instruments of grace. He does the same today. He calls us not because we are perfect, but because He wants to work through us.

CHURCH WASHROOMS We experienced plumbing issues relating to the sewer line in the church. During this time, the one washroom in the church, is open to elderly and handicap parishioners. All other parishioners are asked to use the temporary washroom in the new parish hall. Please follow the signs through the sacristy. During the week, parishioners are asked to use the washroom in the parish office area.

2025 INCOME TAX RECEIPTS will be available for pick-up in the Parish Office after January 26, 2026. On the weekend of February 7-8 and 14-15, income tax receipts will be available at the main entrance of the church for pick-up after Mass. Remaining receipts will be mailed out on February 23, 2026. If you notice any address errors on your receipt there will be a sheet at the main entrance or contact the parish office.

FATHER COSMAS will be away visiting family in Nigeria from December 30, 2025 to January 29, 2026.

OPTIONS FOR DONATING TO ST. JOSEPH'S PARISH

We have enlisted the help of a donation platform called Pllenty to help us make it easier for parishioners and visitors to donate whether it is for Sunday Offertory or to our Gather & Grow Parish Hall campaign. It is as easy as scanning the QR code or visiting a website to donate. There are small flyers at the entrances with the QR code or to take home and learn more about how it works. If you have any questions, call the Parish office during office hours for help.

KNIGHTS CORNER: Today we celebrate the Word of God and the Conversion of St. Paul. Like Paul, we are called to a radical encounter with Christ that transforms our lives and sends us out as "Pilgrims of Hope".

For the Knights of Columbus, Paul's transformation serves as a model for our principle of Unity. Just as Paul worked to bring diverse communities together under one faith, Knights are called to be men of action who defend the Church and build bridges of charity. By grounding ourselves in the Word, we strengthen the bonds of our brotherhood and our mission to serve the "one Body" of Christ. It's simple to join, so why not make this your 2026 resolution?
