Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 8, 2026

Introduction

As we spend time together as members of the same community, we remind ourselves of the importance of a compassionate approach – to each other, to our neighbours, and to our global family.

First Reading: Isaiah 58:7-10

Isaiah reminds us of the importance of compassion. He tells us how important it is not to look away from other people when they are hungry or homeless, but to share whatever we have with them.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:1-5

St. Paul says that he doesn't rely on clever words or great knowledge to persuade people. He speaks instead of his love of Jesus Christ. Even though he experiences anxiety and fear, Paul puts his trust in God.

Gospel: Matthew 5:13-16

Through our actions we are to show others what it means to love. We are to be the lamp that stands on the table giving light, and the salt that flavours and seasons. We are to bring hope, joy and love to our neighbours and to society, through our contributions.

Fr. Cosmas Reflection

You are the salt of the earth... You are the light of the world

In the Gospel of today Jesus speaks to us with words that are both simple and deeply demanding. He tells us, "You are the salt of the earth... You are the light of the world." These are not suggestions or future goals; they are statements of identity. Jesus is telling us who we already are by virtue of our baptism and what the world expects from those who belong to him.

Salt is small and often unnoticed, yet it makes all the difference. A meal without salt is bland and uninviting, and salt also preserves food from decay. In the same way, Christians are meant to give meaning, direction, and moral flavor to the world. Our presence should preserve society from corruption and hopelessness. When faith is reduced to words alone and does not express itself in care for others, it loses its taste. This is why the prophet Isaiah insists that true worship of God is seen in sharing bread with the hungry, welcoming the homeless, and standing with the oppressed. A faith that ignores human suffering cannot transform the world.

Light, on the other hand, cannot be hidden. Jesus reminds us that a city built on a hill is visible to all and that a lamp is not lit to be covered, but to give light to everyone in the house. By calling us light, Jesus is saying that our lives are meant to be visible signs of God's presence. People may never read the Bible, but they read the lives of believers every day. The way we speak, forgive, work, and treat others either reveals Christ or conceals him.

Jesus concludes by urging us to let our light shine before others, so that they may see our good works and give glory to the Father. Our good deeds are not meant to earn praise for us, but to point beyond us to God. Each act of kindness, honesty, patience, and forgiveness becomes a quiet but powerful light in a world often darkened by fear and selfishness.

May the Lord give us the grace to live our faith in such a way that others, seeing our lives, will come to glorify our heavenly Father. Amen.

CHURCH WASHROOMS We continue to experience plumbing issues relating to the sewer line in the church. For parishioners that are able please use the temporary washroom in the new parish hall. During the week, parishioners are asked to use the washroom in the parish office area.

2025 INCOME TAX RECEIPTS will be available for pick-up in the Parish Office Monday to Friday and on the weekend of February 7-8 and 14-15 at the main entrance of the church for pick-up after Mass. Remaining receipts will be mailed out on February 23, 2026. If you notice any address errors on your receipt there will be a sheet at the main entrance or contact the parish office.

There are small flyers at the entrances with the QR code or to take home and learn more about how it works. If you have any questions, call the Parish office during office hours for help.

KNIGHTS CORNER: The Knights of Columbus, like most charitable organizations, has created a series of awards to add further incentive to selfless works, and to recognize noteworthy efforts by a specific Knight, or a certain Council which may stand out. The Father McGivney Award is named for our founder, the Blessed Michael McGivney who has been beatified and is only one step from canonization and recognizes excellence in a Council's membership growth. To earn this award a Council must meet or exceed its yearly membership quota, which is a 6% increase in the council's membership as of 1st July of that year. We are aware that our efforts have also attracted the attention of some men from the Parish who are now proudly Knights in our Council. At a recent District training event, our Grand Knight Patrick Greenwood was honoured to be called forward and accept the Father McGivney Award on behalf of St. Joseph's Knights of Columbus Council 11670. Our question is simple for any male parishioner 18 or older reading this - why haven't you joined yet?
